

I do not believe airing what amounts to a political ad, especially this close to the election, is in the best interests of my community. Please instruct Sinclair Broadcasting that should they broadcast "Stolen Honor" they should also broadcast, immediately after, "Going Upriver" to create some balance.